THE BIG ISLAND

News of Hawaii From the Papers of Hilo.

PLANTATIONS AND RAILWAY

Right of Way Considerations—Cleaning the Second City—A Club—Guessing—Notes.

MORE PLANTATIONS.

(Hawaii Herald.) The more sugar plantations started on the Kona side of Hawaii the more certain will be the chances of the Hilo Railway making a circuit of the island. In addition to those contemplated in Kona there may be a large one at Kawaihae. Experts in the business of growing cane have been over that section and it is said they have reported favorably as to the soil, the greatest drawback being the lack of a suitable water supply. With a plantation at this point and several others in Kona and Kau the extension of the road would be a certainty.

RAILWAY RIGHT OF WAY.

(Hawaii Herald.) One of the difficulties to be encountered by the Hilo Railway Co. will be in securing the necessary roadway across town in building their line to Hamakua. If the terminal be made at Waialeale the most direct route for the road in going to Hamakua would be along the beach and crossing the Wailuku below the fishmarket. But this property, makai of Front street, has been condemned for park purposes and it will take an act of the Legislature to repeal the law.

Should this not be obtainable the road would have to run back of town. Chief Engineer Kluge refuses to give out any information, saying that as the survey has not been made he has nothing to tell. In connection with the building of this road there can be little if any speculating in lands by either the railway companies or others. In the direction of Hamakua there is no available land near the beach, practically everything being held by the different plantations, and as the object in building the line is to carry sugar it is not likely the road will leave the mills very far away.

DOUBLE MURDER.

(Hilo Herald.) Sheriff Andrews went over to Wailua last Friday to investigate a reported double murder at that place, which is said to have taken place the day previous. Information as to details are meager. At the sheriff's office it was stated that a mother is supposed to have murdered a three months' old child and an aunt had killed another child in the same family. Arrests were made at once.

CLEANING THE TOWN.

(Hilo Herald.) Officer Charles Moore and a gang of prisoners have been at work for the past week cleaning the yards in the premises on the makai side of Front street. It is the intention of the Health Officer, now that the places have been thoroughly cleaned, to enforce cleanliness throughout the city in the future.

A CLUB FOR HILO.

(Hilo Tribune.) New club rooms and a club organization are among the latest of Hilo's advancements in a social way. Messrs. Rocky and Mackintosh have taken the second story of the Rocky building and have made several alterations, which will fit it for excellent club quarters. There will be billiard rooms, card rooms and refreshment rooms. Permission has been obtained from the Minister of the Interior, most of the furnishings have been secured and the rooms will be ready for occupancy next week. By-laws of the club are now being drawn up and charter members will organize the club immediately. This is something that has long been needed in Hilo and the club rooms will be a popular place with the young men in a town where there are so few counter attractions as in Hilo.

A GUESSING BEE.

(Hilo Tribune.) In what way the matter contaminating the city water supply enters the pipes is yet a thing in doubt. It seems, however, that it must enter at, or near, the head of the main, or the spring supplying it. The suggestion that sewerage poisons flow in through leaks in the joints of the pipe is denied as absurd by those who are acquainted with the facts, since, as they say, the pressure in the pipes is at least eighty pounds at the head of Waiuanu street, so that in case of leakage the flow would be outward and by no possibility could foreign matter enter against such pressure. In any case the source of the water supply is far too low, and the next Legislature should pass a bill providing for the source to be far back in the forest, entirely beyond all cane fields or residence sites. It may be bone meal or it may not be, it may come from surface sewerage of other sorts, or it may not, but there is a strong possibility that until the water supply comes from a much more remote source than at present, the experience of the last few weeks is liable to repetition.

NOTES.

(Hilo Tribune.) One hundred and five Portuguese registered in Hilo in a single day this week. Reports from New York announce that Pepeekeo No. 1 sugar, which has arrived there is the best received this year, polarizing at 99. Frost at the Volcano House on Sunday morning last is the latest news of interest from that resort. So low a temperature is very rarely experienced at that point.

An old five-cent Hawaiian stamp, which was placed in the hands of Mr. C. C. Kennedy by a friend in the East for disposal, has been sold to Mr. C. A. Brown, of Honolulu, for $500. A newspaper plant direct from Japan arrived on the Kinuau, and a new Japanese paper will shortly make its appearance in Hilo.

Deputy Sheriff Lyman says that the increase in the number of natives who are registering this year for voting is remarkable, especially in portions of Kona and Kohala where royalistic sentiment has prevailed so strongly. August Humburg, who for some time has been connected with the Hilo branch of Haeckfeld & Co., left by last night's Kinuau for Kailua, where he will have charge of the Haeckfeld store for a few months.

The Board of Registration was kept busy on Thursday; the Portuguese especially are active in enrolling themselves as voters and will undoubtedly furnish a great number of the votes in the coming election. C. H. Brown will leave for the coast by the Roderick Dhu about the first of next month. He will be absent five or six weeks and will go as far east as Chicago, where twenty-one years of his life were spent. The main object of his trip is to purchase plumbing materials for the new Peacock block.

A HOLD-UP.

Ed. Devauchelle Knocked Out and Robbed of $180 Gold.

Ed Devauchelle, whose name has had an appearance or so in police annals, is quite prominent in this sphere just now. Devauchelle has been sand-bagged. He was "laid out" in metropolitan fashion late Saturday night. Devauchelle was relieved of $180 in gold which he had not owned a great while. The scene of the hold-up was in the Iwilei district. Devauchelle remembers very little of the assault. He was clubbed. The attack was from behind and consisted of not more than a couple of blows. They were strong hits. Devauchelle says he was unconscious for fully a quarter of an hour. It was quite dark in the Iwilei neighborhood. Devauchelle saw no men. He may have been done to the ground and out of his nice gold by a lone highwayman, or there may have been a silent squad in the enterprise. Ed and a brother reported at the police station shortly after midnight Saturday night. The man who had been slugged and robbed was at once taken into a private office by Detective Kaapa. Nothing concerning the case could be secured for the press from the police department. A report on the outside is that Devauchelle has a theory which he declines to divulge to the officers.

New Residence District.

Morgan is to hold on Saturday, the 27th inst., a real estate sale that cannot fail to attract many buyers. There will be offered to bidders residence lots in Kapalama. The land is but a short distance from the King street car line and has a number of advantages. It will be touched by the School street extension, which is already surveyed. Arrangements have been made for widening the Insane Asylum road. The land is well drained and has the merit of being "close in."

Che Fa Raid.

The notorious gambling resort of Su Young was raided by Deputy Marshal Chillingworth Saturday night. The proprietor has but recently arrived from China and lately the play has been unusually heavy, the house losing steadily. After he had been arrested and charged with conducting a che fa game he was released on $500 cash bail. His case will come up today.

THE UNION RALLY

Great Outpouring of the Sunday School Children.

ABOUT 2,000 IN THE COLUMN

Many Churches and Nationalities Represented. Banners—Singing—Review—Address.

The Sunday school rally last Saturday was a distinct and unqualified success. With no marring feature whatever it formed one of the most unique and interesting spectacles that could be seen anywhere on the face of the earth. No better means to typify the church effort for the eternal brotherhood of man could be found than the pageant that marched in front of the reviewing stand. Children of all climes, races and tongues joined together in making the display.

The streets along which the parade was to pass had been strung with banners, and mottoes had been hung from the poles. Over the crossing of Richard and King streets was: "He shall reign forever, and we shall reign with Him." At Richard and Hotel streets was: "Praise the Lord, all ye nations." At the corner of the parade ground a banner with "Put on the whole armor of God" upon it flapped in the breeze. The entrance to Kawaihae was an arch of palms upon which was displayed "Na man ke ea o ka aina i ka pano." Bunting of various colors was draped about the poles along the line of march.

A raised platform had been built in front of the Opera house. This served as the reviewing stand. It was decorated with a liberal supply of palms and bunting artistically arranged. In the stand were the following dignitaries of the church and State:

Rev. H. H. Parker, Kawaihae; Rev. Timoteo, Kaunakapili; Rev. W. M. Kincaid, Central Union; Rev. G. L. Pearson, Methodist; Rev. W. A. Gardner, Christian; Rev. A. V. Soares, Portuguese; Mr. Leng, Chinese; Mr. Tong, Chinese; Rev. Kihara, Japanese; Mr. E. Rev. Okumura, Japanese Cong.; Rev. S. P. Perry, Kamehameha; Rev. Victor Morgan, Christian; Rev. Azbill, Christian; Rev. Hiram Bingham, D. D.; Rev. S. E. Bishop, D. D.; Rev. J. L. Leedingham, N. Pacific Inst.; Rev. O. H. Gulick, Japanese work; Rev. O. P. Emerson, Secretary Hawaiian Board; Rev. A. Mackintosh, Anglican Church; Rev. J. Usborne, St. Clement's; Rev. Kiteat, Anglican Church; Mrs. J. M. Whitney, President W. C. T. U.; Mr. H. E. Coleman, Secretary Y. M. C. A.; Rev. Mr. Howe, Seventh Day Adventists; Mr. Goo Kim, Chinese Y. M. C. A.; Mr. T. S. Southwick, President C. E. Central Union; Mr. J. Kumalae, President C. E., Kawaihae; Mr. S. Kamaopili, President C. E., Kaunakapili; Mrs. J. H. Taggart, President C. E. Christian; Mr. Alfred Dunn, President Epworth League; Staff Capt. Merriweather, Salvation Army; Rev. James Davis, Waikane; S. B. Dole, S. M. Damon, E. Mott-Smith, J. A. King, H. E. Cooper.

The various schools gathered promptly. Stakes had been placed showing the position on the parade ground that each was to occupy. There was no confusion whatever and for this credit is due Grand Marshal Coleman and aides and the various committees in charge. All the children wore white satin badges and every school carried at least one banner. Promptly at 3:30 the cadet band struck up a lively march and the column began to move, over 2000 strong.

Along Hotel to Richard, down Richard to King, and along King past the reviewing stand formed the line of march. First the band of the Kamehameha Boys swung into view. In their neat gray uniforms they passed proudly by the stand, as if they realized that the day was a notable one and worthy of good music.

Then came the Sunday school children of Kamehameha Manuel and Kamehameha Preparatory. D. Kaloi was aide for the former and W. W. Bristol for the latter. A number of banners were carried by them, and with their 180 members they made a good showing. After singing in front of the reviewing stand, the column moved and the Methodist Sunday school came up.

M. Johnston was the aide for this body. They were about sixty strong, and carried a number of beautiful banners. They sang in front of the stand and then gave way to the Kawaihae Sunday school.

M. Nawaa officiated as aide for Kawaihae. They carried a large Hawaiian flag together with a number of mottoes. They had about 230 in line and made a good showing.

The Christian Church Sunday school with John Templeton as aide, came next. There being about sixty of them, they nevertheless made a good appearance. A number of mottoes, as "Buds of Hope," "Gleaners," "Truthseekers," were carried.

The little tots of the Japanese Sunday school followed. A large Japanese flag was carried side by side with a beautiful banner of the church. Each child had a miniature flag. At a given signal these were all raised and the singing began. They received great applause. Mr. Fukukita was the aide.

The Palama Sunday school, carrying two banners, "God is great" and "God is good," came next. P. C. Atherton acted as aide. The turnout was one of the largest of all, there being about 250 in line.

The Portuguese Sunday school, J. D. Marques aide, bearing a beautiful banner, "Deus e amor," came after Palama. They made a creditable appearance with their seventy-five marchers.

The Chinese Sunday school followed. Their carriage, their uniform and numbers all went to make one of the most interesting bodies in the procession. They carried an elegant banner of green and gold and a large Chinese flag. One little fellow standing near the flag sang with a voice of surprising purity and clearness. Mr. Naste was the aide. After receiving merited applause they made way for the Kaunakapili Sunday school. With but one exception this was the largest body in line, 275 having turned out. At the head was an elegant banner of green silk with the words "Ka hae o ke aloha" upon it. Their singing was excellent, and was greeted with applause. Mr. Kamaopili was their aide.

The Central Union Sunday school, nearly 400 strong, came next. A number of banners were carried, the one at the head being of elegant design and rich material. This was the largest representation in line. E. Benner officiated as aide.

The singing of the Kamehameha Girls' School, which came next, was an attractive feature. They carried rods decorated with red and white bunting. Mr. Easkew acted as aide. Waikane Sunday school, with thirty faithful members closed the procession.

From the reviewing stand all the schools marched to the Kawaihae Church yard, where another stand had been built, profusely decorated with palms and bunting. The following programme was rendered there:

Rally song (tune Hawaii Ponoi.) Lord's prayer. Address—Rev. G. L. Pearson. "Onward Christian Soldiers." Doxology.

The schools then marched out in the reverse order of their entrance, the great crowd dispersed, and one of the most interesting, unique and successful celebrations Honolulu has seen was ended.

Rev. Mr. Pearson, being introduced by W. A. Bowen, the chairman, said: Mr. President, Officers, Teachers and Scholars.

I have a friend who was once called upon to speak at a Sunday school pic-
